Secretary Solis Visits Albuquerque JCC

On June 30, Secretary Solis visited the Albuquerque Job Corps Center and received a warm welcome by staff and approximately 200 students, many of whom postponed their summer break just so they could meet the Secretary. Secretary Solis and Senators Jeff Bingham and Tom Udall were led by student leaders on a campus tour of the NEWCorp Academic Program, SIATech high school, the Advanced Welding program, the new Health and Occupations Training Lab and the daycare facilities. According to Dallas Regional Director June Boswell, "The Secretary was thoroughly impressed with the students' social skills and how comfortable they were engaging and responding to her. She was equally impressed with the quality of training and the quality of staff. She also said in closing that she would tell President Obama what a great program the country has in the Job Corps Program."
